

Bar Standards Board Rules & Regulations

The Inns work closely with the Bar Standards Board, the regulator of the Bar, in relation to their work in the education, training, and qualification of barristers of England and Wales. The regulations that govern the Inns' roles and responsibilities, further to their own internal rules, are set out in a number of places, namely:

BSB Handbook \(Part 4: Qualification Rules\)

Bar Qualification Manual \(Part 3: The Role of the Inns\)

Memorandum of Understanding between the Inns and the BSB, including Schedule 1:

Guidelines for Fit and Proper Person Checks, Schedule 2: Qualifying Sessions

Framework, Schedule 3: Data Sharing Protocol, and Schedule 4: Assurance Framework